

Patrick R. Malley, 85

Patrick R. Malley, 85, a resident of Duxbury, passed away on Friday, February 12, 2016, at the Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital in Boston.

Patrick was born April 1930 in Buffalo, NY. After graduation from Canisius High School, he joined the United States Air Force and served as a pilot in the 53Able Squadron. He received his degree at Canisius College in Buffalo. In 1955, he married Ruth Burger. Patrick sold scientific instruments nationally and internationally for DuPont, JEOL, Finnegan MAT and Bruker Daltonics.

Patrick and Ruth made their home in Duxbury for 37 years. Patrick was a member of the Holy Family Church and he believed in being a life long learner, both personally and professionally. He loved spending time with his family and playing golf.

Patrick is survived by his son, Patrick R. Malley, Jr. of Chester Springs, PA; his daughter, Kathleen and her husband Darin MacFarlane of Duxbury; granddaughters, Kayleigh MacFarlane and her fiancé Cameron Miller, and Mariah MacFarlane; his nephews, Michael, William, Daniel, and Brendan Malley and their families; and his sister-in-law, Mary Jo Ketchum and husband Don of Elma, NY. His wife Ruth Malley and brothers Raymond and William predeceased him. The family thanks all his extended family and friends who supported him.

Calling hours at the Shepherd Funeral Home, 216 Main Street, (Route 106), Kingston will be Thursday, February 18 from 4-8 p.m.

Funeral services at the Shepherd Funeral Home will be on Friday, February 19 at 9 a.m., followed by his funeral Mass at the Holy Family Church, 601 Tremont Street, Duxbury, at 10 a.m. Interment will be held at the Mayflower Cemetery, 774 Tremont Street, Duxbury. For directions and online condolences, visit shepherdfuneralhome.com.